DID YOU KNOW?

Havana is home to a street cobbled with wood. It runs right next to the Palacio de Los Capitanes Generales. The wife of one of the Capitanes was afraid that horses walking on stone cobbles outside her window would keep her awake, so she had the lane paved with wood.

DID YOU KNOW?

Carajillo is a Spanish drink combining coffee with brandy or rum. It is typical of Spain and its origin dates to the Spanish occupation of Cuba. The troops combined coffee with rum to give them courage (coraje in Spanish, hence, "corajillo" and more recently "carajillo").
